

Cibolo Creek Quilters Guild Board Meeting Agenda

January 6, 2026

9:00 AM - PHPL Conference Room

Call to Order

9:07

Present: Judi B, Ann H, Cathy P, Andrea F, Sharon R, Karen W, Carol S, Lorey W, Carol L

December Board Minutes Approval

Ann H motion and Carol L 2nd; Voted to approve

President's Update

Carol S

- Carol S's goal is to Publicize what we do and getting us more exposure
- Will try to get the Calendar published in Boerne Star, Boerne Life, Texas Monthly, PEC magazine, Library calendar...work with Karen W to put these into action
- Carol – Bulverde Methodist Church – we can put our patriotic quilts there. Could we do something for 250th anniversary. Also Boerne's 150th anniversary. Lorey W will write an email to library requesting that we be able hang patriotic quilts in July on the upper railing.
- Chamber Membership - $200 for non-profit; Would be in time for 10th anniversary ribbon cutting; summer social; Karen will get us registered.
- Submitted funding request for HCCArts to fund one or more of our workshops
 - Would like to get the Guild calendar on their website and in their article in the Boerne Star
 - Kelly L requested assistance with an intro to quilting and beginner sewing class at the November meeting. Karen will check in with her about those
 - If we are partners with the HCCArts, should we have a rep at their meetings; what is their schedule
 - Deanie J has funded set up and take down; last year's boy scout troop did not want to do it this year. Contacting troop from the Methodist Church to see if they are interested.
- Nametags
 - Karen will print all membership names on Muslin
 - Will have a nametag Challenge starting in February with March being the "judging"
 - Should there be a financial "consequence" for not bringing your nametag to the meeting.

President Pro-Tem Report

Lorey

- Reviewed sales numbers for 2024 and 2025
- The library is booked up for a full display of quilts in 2026. Lorey will talk to Libby at the library about being on the waitlist for an opening and booking a month for 2027
- We can still hang one quilt over the stairs for sale. 10% of quilt sales at library goes to the library. This will be provided in the future by check.
- Oak Hills Womens Conference – Feb 20-21, 2026
- Ann will ask Bonnie about the ordering of new raffle tickets
- Reviewed future venues for sales
- Approved up to $35 for new banner

Treasurer's Report

Ann

- Ann will transfer 10K in Savings and put staggering CDs together –Andrea motion to approve and Ann seconded
- Ann will check interest rates to determine the best instrument for funds

Community Outreach

Sharon

- Louisa F interested in support Outreach. Sharon will invite to Board meeting.
- Items that exist in inventory after 1 year in sales will be transferred to donate
- Smaller (less than throw size that are not art quilts) square quilts should go to donate.
- New Cibolo Nature Center School has a bird theme and Heartland will be onboarded. The Vault did not respond to Sharon.
- Perhaps a t-shirt for the Guild to help identify us when we go out. There are aprons but they can be cumbersome when in public.

Membership

Cathy

- Previous attendance = 29 at the Guild Party
- Nancy R joined at the party
- 34 renewed members
- Lera B, Vernell J, Elaine S, Lisa A, Jackie B and Jennifer G
- Curious about the cause for reduction in membership. Programs wants a bigger budget to bring in more speakers and workshops

Programs/Workshops

Andrea

- Vickie Owen from Pixelated quilts will be at the Jan meeting to show what we can expect for her workshop
- Programs would like the guild to consider increasing budget to bring in more speakers and workshops
- Foundation Paper Piecing Workshop will be held Thursday during the day at the library before the Guild Meeting; May 14; 10 – 4 then do Program that night

PR

Karen

- Website updated and will update when remainder of info comes
- Other PR activities discussed in President's Update above

Retreats

Judi

- April 23 – 26 Camp Wood – evening meal on 23 and brunch on 26; three meals on 24 and 25
- Jennifer Goodall will set out the signup sheet
- Fall Retreat has not been set up – shooting for October

Old Business

2026 Budget

- Remove Member appreciation and add 250 to Holiday Party
- Add 1200 to Miscellaneous Income for setup and 1200 Miscellaneous Expense for setup
- Change 2250 to 2000 for sales income

New Business

- Bylaws Update – Carol S, Judy B, Lorey W, Andrea F Committee to update bylaws
- Join Chamber $200 + $35 application fee.
- Holiday Party
 - 10 gifts, bags, present to win
 - Ham provided by Guild and sign up for sides – Consult with Thelma S
- Workshop Fees
 - $50 members & $75 nonmembers; Sharon moved, Lorey second approved
- Member Recognition – Shirley Smith Award
 - Need a better process to select recipient
 - Judy will chair a committee to educate members on Shirley Smith
 - Update the process for recording who did what on donation quilts so we can recognize people each month
 - Include in monthly presentation
- Finishing quilts
 - Need a form and point person to coordinate quilting and binding of donation quilts

Adjourn – 11:53

Next Meeting: February 3, 2026

10 AM; PHPL Conference Room

CCQG Meeting Agenda
January 8, 2026
Boerne Library Community Room
7:00-8:30 PM

Call to Order:

Program:

Gail B and Susan Dr; Exploding Pineapple Techniques

Business Meeting:

Approve November Minutes
President's Update
Sales / Raffle Quilt Updates
Programs & Workshops
Community Outreach
Membership
Retreats
Public Relations
Sunshine & Shadows
Show & Tell